
MARTINA BOSEDE

INTERNATIONAL DJ & HOST

As an Irish-Nigerian, Martina showcases her mixed cultural background in her work; with performances spanning from Nigeria to the UK & Ireland, her DJ portfolio is a comprehensive fugue of eclectic musical styles and influences.

As an open format DJ, Martina has hosted a variety of international venues, with tours spanning from Porsche in the UK to shows across Nigeria including work with MTV Base Nigeria.

While in Europe, she made a name for herself through a number of high profile events and performances such as: Ministry Of Sound, Scala, Palm Beach Mayfair, Colony Casino, Esporta Hotel Group Nigeria, St Martins Lane Hotel, Century Club Soho, Oxo Tower, Grays Inn, Shoreditch Platform, and the Canary Wharf Fashion Show.

Her portfolio has only increased since arriving in Toronto, with performances and residencies at: Caribana, Breakfast Television, The Four Seasons Hotel, The Sheraton Centre, Royal Sonesta Hotel, Yorkdale Mall, Metro Convention Centre, Art Gallery of Ontario, The Westin Harbour Castle, and the Star Trek Strange New Worlds wrap party.

She's represented brands such as: Coach, Tiffany & Co, Royal De Versailles, Guerlain, and Michael Kors.

She's spearheaded initiatives both corporate and celebrity, such as: Ikea's Toronto expansion, the SportingLife x Nobis launch with actor Simu Liu, and the Canadian launch of Alicia Keys' Keys Soulcare brand, before hosting the singer's private afterparty at Hotel X.

Most recently she distinguished herself at the Toronto International Film Festival where she performed for the red carpet appearance of celebrities such as Oprah, Tyler Perry and Anna Kendrick.

